CIVIL ACTION NO. H-05-3455

DEFENDANT JONES DAY'S AFFIRMATIVE AND OTHER DEFENSES AND ANSWER TO PLAINTIFF'S FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

Defendant Jones Day ("Jones Day" or "Defendant") respectfully files this, its Affirmative and Other Defenses and Answer to Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint, and would respectfully show the Court the following:

AFFIRMATIVE AND OTHER DEFENSES

Defendant pleads the following affirmative and other defenses, but does not assume the burden of proof except to the extent required on pure affirmative defenses:

1. Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint fails, in whole or in part, to state a cause of action against Defendant upon which relief can be granted and should therefore be dismissed pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6);
2. Subject to further discovery, Defendant asserts that Plaintiff has not fulfilled all conditions precedent to the institution of this lawsuit, administrative prerequisites, and applicable statutes of limitation;
3. Plaintiff has failed to mitigate her damages, if any;

4. Plaintiff's claims for damages are capped or limited in accordance with applicable law;

5. Plaintiff's damages are limited by the doctrine of after-acquired evidence;

6. Plaintiff's claims for compensatory and punitive damages are limited by the provisions and maximum amount set forth in 42 U.S.C. § 1981(a);

7. Plaintiff's claim for exemplary damages in this case violates the provisions of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution; Article I, §§ 13 and 19 of the Texas Constitution;

8. Plaintiff's claim for exemplary damages in this case is subject to the damage cap provided in Tex. Lab. Code § 21.2585(d);

9. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because any actions Defendant took with respect to Plaintiff were based on legitimate, non-discriminatory and non-retaliatory reasons, and Defendant would have taken the same actions regardless of any other alleged reasons;

10. Plaintiff's alleged losses and damages, if any, are the result of, and directly related to, Plaintiff's own conduct, actions, and/or failure to act, and not of Defendant's conduct, actions or failure to act;

11. All actions taken by Defendant with respect to Plaintiff were justified, in good faith, and without malice;

12. Defendant denies the allegations contained in Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint. However, Defendant affirmatively pleads that it has in place an established anti-discrimination policy and an established anti-harassment policy, which include a complaint procedure to prevent and/or correct any alleged discrimination, harassment, retaliation, or other unlawful conduct. Plaintiff unreasonably failed to take advantage of this procedure;

13. Defendant denies the allegations contained in Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint and denies that it engaged in any unlawful conduct. However, Defendant affirmatively pleads that to the extent Plaintiff has alleged any unlawful conduct by Defendant, Defendant exercised reasonable care to prevent and properly correct such alleged behavior or conduct;

14. Defendant is not liable for exemplary damages in this case because any alleged discriminatory employment decisions are contrary to Defendant's good-faith efforts to comply with the anti-discrimination laws, including but not limited to the Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, the Texas Commission on Human Rights Act, and 42 U.S.C. § 1981;

Subject to further discovery, Defendant asserts the defenses of ratification, waiver, estoppel, and/or laches.
